Click below get information on how to set up any of the following alternate insurance interfaces.

FAQ's for Endicia Preferred Rates

1. Discounts are best on Priority Mail weight based and cubic rate services.
2. You receive a 3 cent discount on a first class stamp (using a Dymo label printer).
3. You can mail First Class International Flat through Endicia's GAP program.
4. Priority Mail includes $100 free insurance. Express Mail envelope includes $100 free insurance. Express Mail packages includes $200 free insurance. You must leave the declared value field in PostalMate blank to get the free insurance.
5. You may not use USPS insurance above what has been listed in this document. You may use Endicia Parcel Insurance or other third party insurance to cover additional amounts or other USPS services.
6. You may use USPS Priority Mail Cubic pricing for qualifying boxes and soft packs (envelopes).
7. You probably should never select cubic rate pricing for a box you are mailing. Usually your regular Priority Mail price will be higher – that is the one you should sell. It is a great idea to move the cubic rate pricing option to a back tab, where you won't see it unless you need it for a soft pack. Remember, when mailing a box, Endicia will automatically give you the lowest qualifying price (cubic or regular) when selecting Priority Mail. However, if you are mailing a soft pack, you must actually select the soft pack pricing option to get that rate.
